

PRIVACY STATEMENT

Pumpkinvine Baptist Church (PBC) is very concerned about the privacy of our online users. Therefore, we have implemented a church-wide privacy policy for our website. The following discloses what information our website collects and what we do with it. This privacy statement is for informational purposes only and should not be viewed as a contract. Please be aware that by using this website you agree and consent to PBC's Privacy Statement as outlined below.

Personal Information:

PBC does not collect personally-identifiable information about individuals except when such individuals specifically and knowingly provide such information. All personal information is kept confidential and is not distributed, sold or shared with anyone, unless an individual provides express permission to do so.

However, PBC may offer services such as chat rooms, message boards, or other open discussion forums.

Be aware that information you supply in such forums is considered public information and is not protected.

Children's Privacy:

PBC is strongly committed to the safety and protection of our children. PBC does not knowingly accept or collect personal information or any other information that would allow personal identification of our children under the age of 18 without the prior written consent of a parent or legal guardian. From time to time PBC may wish to post photographs of our children on our ministry sites. However, written parental or legal guardian consent must first be obtained. At no time will the names of children be posted with photographs in a way which would make them personally identifiable.

Technical Information:

This is information that is exchanged between our computer and yours when visiting this website. This information is anonymous and cannot personally identify you. This type of information may include but is not limited to your IP address, referring URL, type of Web browser, browser display settings, and whether you are a first time visitor or returning visitor to our site. The technical information gathered from those visiting our site allows us to improve the usability of the website and assist in diagnosing and resolving technical problems which may occur. PBC is the sole owner of the information collected on this website. Therefore, we will not sell, share, or otherwise disclose to third parties this information.

Links:

This website may contain links to other sites. Please be aware that PBC is not responsible for the privacy policies or information collection practices of other sites. We encourage our users to be aware of the privacy statements of each and every website that you visit, especially those which collect personally identifiable information. The privacy statement of PBC applies solely to the information collected by this website.

Changes to Privacy Policy:

If we decide to make any changes to our privacy statement we will post those changes on our Homepage.

We want our users to always be aware of what information we collect, how we use it, and under the circumstances, if any, we disclose it. If you have any questions about this privacy statement, the practices of this site, or your dealings with this website, please contact our Webmaster.
